DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 52, 54-55, 57-58, 60-62 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yashida US. Pat. No. 4,729,033.

3. Claims 52, 54-55, 57-58, 60-62, Yashida teaches a data transmission method used between an image providing device and a target device which are connected by a serial bus [communication procedure, see abstract], the method comprising the steps of:

setting, in communication between the image providing device and the target device, a PULL method as a data transfer method to pull data from the image providing device based on control of the target device [setting the reception mode into polling reception mode], in accordance with a first request issued by the image providing device [the initial identification signal, see abstract ]; and controlling readout of the data from the image providing device in accordance with a second request issued by the target device when the PULL method is set [abstract].

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 53, 56, 59 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion
